A horizontal timeline illustrating shipwreck events from 1906 to 1987. The timeline consists of a series of icons representing different types of ships or wrecks, arranged chronologically along a grey line. The icons include steamships, cargo ships, submarines, and other maritime vessels. Some icons are detailed with colors like red, blue, and white, while others are simpler black and white outlines. The timeline starts with a small black square at the far left, followed by several ship icons, ending with a larger black square at the far right.

A horizontal number line with tick marks at 0, 20,000, and 40,000.
